

Summer Dance Institute 2009

"One Great Country!"

New Hampshire Dance Institute is offering one incredible two week session, Monday through Friday, August 3rd - 14th from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. The dancers, aged 7-15 will be separated into four age groups, rotating between eight talented NHDI Instructors. Camp will be held in Keene with a performance on August 14th.

NHDI Summer Institute will nurture children's passion for dance by introducing them to various dance genres. The four lead teachers, including our popular Artistic Director, Kristen Leach, will lead children in: Jazz, Hip Hop, Modern, Choreography, and NDI Style as they journey through an exploration of "Our Great Country!" During the second week Artistic Director Dufftin Garcia from Trenton Educational Dance Institute and teaching artists of NDI in New York City will guest teach!

Cost for the two week session is $300 or dancers may attend one week for $200. A 10% discount is offered for the second child enrolled from the same family. Space is limited. So reserve a spot A.S.A.P. by sending in the pre-registration form below with your $50 deposit. Some financial aid is available. Please call the office for details (603) 355-8911.

This is not a school sponsored activity
NHDI is part of Monadnock Arts In Education, a 501C3 non-profit organization.
